GAMES ARE POPULAR IN LONDON SOCIETY

Roulette with Cards One of New Diversions.

London, Nov. 12.-Two new games are popular with country house parties this season. One is called Fantasio, and is ago, his wife says, and has not been a sort of table bowls, on which heavy heard from since. Mrs. Manning fears bets are made. The other is roulette with cards, four packs being used. The players place their stakes on cards instead of the ordinary numbers as in roulette. The threatened revival of folk dances bids fair to revolutionize English terpsichorean ideals. Many society leaders are assiduously studying pavanes, minuets, and sarabandes, intending to introduce them next season.

CONGRESS TO RULE ON ALASKA CLAIMS

Ballinger Would Shift Cases: to Federal Courts.

Announcement was made at the Interior Department yesterday that neither President Taft nor Secretary Ballinger has any intention of acting on the Cunningham claims for coal lands in Alaska-the claims which, in part, provoked the Bailinger-Pinchot controversy-until Congress has had an opportunity to indicate by legislation the manner of their dis-

In his forthcoming annual report, Secretary Ballinger will recommend that the Cunningham cases be transferred from the jurisdiction of his department to the Federal courts. Under present procedura the Secretary of the Interior has the final say in the matter of issuing patents for lands on the public domain. His Decision Final.

There is no appeal from his decision. Secretary Ballinger's attitude toward the Cunningham claims and all like cases is set forth in an extract from his annual report, made public yesterday.

The Ballinger-Pinchot case will soon make its reappearance on the legislative board in Washington. A meeting of six Republican members of the Congress committee on inquiry will be held early in December. The Democrats-Senators Fletcher, of Florida, and Purcell of North Dakota, and Representatives James, of Kentucky, and Graham, of Illinois-who vere favored by Representative Madison, of Kansas, the Republican, have already framed their report, in which Secretary Ballinger is condemned.
